

TITAN '82

NOT 20.71 6

The Lely High School yearbook will from this time forward be called the "Titan." In Greek mythology it means a leader with enormous strength, wisdom and courage. This description symbolizes the spirit here at Lely — home of the Mighty Trojans.

LAST WILL

I, Robie Condon, being of sound mind and body, leave to Lisa McDonald my dedication and hard work that is needed to be a senior band member.

I, Cathy Ashbacher, will my always reliable tape recorder with run down batteries and careful charting that usually had us running into band members, to the next flag line captain. To my sister, Jenny, all the tests, surprise quiz's homework and final exams that it takes to get through high school. Good Luck!

We, Cheryl Vergo and Bridget Shaughnessy, being of sound mind and body, (we think), will our basketball skill and knowledge to Mrs. Sager and Coach Young.

I, Tammy Hamm, leave behind the knowledge that if I can graduate anyone can.

I, Jodi Mastro, will to Brenda Gay my refrigerator and its contents so she will never go hungry.

I, Annette Ayres, being of sound mind and body, will my moccasins and favorite hat to Heather Kretchmer.

I, Michelle Krysmalski, being of sound mind and body, dedicate all my Izods, plaid skirts, pink and green clothes and also my penny loafers to the Frary sisters.

I, Greg Specht, leave to the next Drum Major all the problems and all the dumb questions the Freshmen and underclassmen ask; may you be a patient person. I also leave the school drum major baton which always falls apart at the wrong times.

I, Mike Hoover, being of sound mind, will my bowling ball to Angie, Pam, Chris and Lisa for they need the practice, and to David Hollida my car with used back seats.

I, Ronda Richert, will my Trans Am and my ability to wash it once a week to Mike Ryan.

I, Jon Groff, being of sound mind and body, leave Steve Loden my collection of Yogi tricks and my Charley Pell Football T-shirt that's in my pillowcase.

I, Kamala Mann, do hereby leave to my one and only sister, Amber, all my Hershey Kisses, to pass Mrs. Sonneborn's class. Also, the experiences I've acquired like knowing which bathroom is the boy's and which is the girl's.

I, Dave "Rockford" Centracchio, leave my Rockfordmobile, my shaving cream, and my outstanding credit at Chuck E. Cheeses's, to my protégé and predecessor, Mike Whalen.

I, Stacy Dame, will to Sherri Pike the ability to set out and capture and keep a boyfriend. And to Barry, all my heart and love forever.

I, Diane Haberlin, leave the next empty t-p roll, a new bottle of Tiger Sauce and my water balloons to Heather Kretschmer.

We, Ken Mabe and Donna Frates, being of soundless minds and bodies, will to Miss Case a bottle of Neo-Synephrine, a desk leg, a chicken leg and one rotten apple!!

I, Ralph Perriello, being of sound mind and body, will to Greg Mitchell my ability to tackle the quarterback on the option.

AND TESTAMENT

I, Chris Payson, will my one and only worldly possession, the luxury cruiser (silver bullet), to Mike Whalen.

I, Cindy Stevenson, will leave nothing to anybody . . . I'm taking it all with me!

Dear . . .

TO OUR DARLING DAUGHTER, JODI LYNN MASTRO:

Congratulations, your love, concern, loyalty, and devotion, are lasting memories, to your parents. You are a chosen person of God, continue to look to Him for the total source, of all that you do and say. In serving Him, you have learned to walk that extra mile.

Your Loving Parents
Eternally

RICHARD CAREY CONGRATULATIONS MOM

TO CINDY STEVENSON:

Congratulations Cindy! If I could be seventeen again, I'd like to be exactly like you. You are #1 in my heart. Look out world, here — comes a real winner!
Mom

CONGRATULATIONS VICKY ADDISON:

We want to tell you how very proud we are of you now and always. We want to wish you all the success and happiness in your future. We love you always. Thank you for all the happiness you have given us. Thank you for being you.

Love Mom and Dad

TO STEFANIE SCHNEIDER:

It is a time of endings and beginnings, to remember the old and anticipate the new. All the hopes and dreams of life now eagerly await you. Our child has grown into a wonderful young woman. Our hearts are filled with love and pride. Together we have worked and played as well as laughed and cried. Now we wish for you that which makes life truly real, faith and hope and joy and caring, and mostly love — are celebrations in the sharing.

With much love,
Mom and Dad

TO GERALD WAYNE BREWER:

Dear Son:

May God guide your footsteps down your future road of life and may you always be as proud of yourself as we are of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

TO LORI NORDSTROM:

How quickly you have grown,
my child.
All gone, the days when you were small.
How quickly time has flown,
my child;
Summer, winter, spring and fall.

For you are now grown up,
my child,
No longer mine to cuddle tight.
You have your life to live,
my child;
But, keep me in your sight.

It may not always show,
my child,
The love I hold so deep within,
But know that it is always there,
Will always be,
has always been.
Mom and Dad

TO COLLEEN SULLIVAN:

It happened one lonely day in May:
God said, "Colleen, come this way."
He's allowed you to brighten our lives awhile
With your sweetness, your laughter,
your ready smile.
And now, Colleen, the time has come
For us to give you to everyone.
It'll soon be time for you to leave our nest,
Though we'll not want it — it'll be the best.
But if, as you go along your way,
You care — and share — come what may,
Then you will find, whatever you do,
That the love of others will come back to you.

Love, Mom and Dad

TO JENNIFER NOLAN:

Miss J,
You done good;
We knew you wood!
You loving parents,
Muffy and Skip Izod-LaCoste

TO JEFFREY W. HORN:

"Congratulations, Jeff"
From all the Horn Family.

TO ART SALINAS:

Often your tasks will be many,
And more than you think you can do . . .
Often the road will be rugged
And the hills insurmountable, too . . .
But always remember,
the hills ahead
Are never as steep as they seem.

And with Faith in your heart
Start upward
And climb 'til you reach your dream,
For nothing in life that is worthy
Is ever too hard to achieve
If you have the courage to try it
And you have the Faith to believe . . .
For Faith is a force that is greater Than knowledge or power or skill
And many defeats turn to triumph
If you trust in God's wisdom and will . . .
For Faith is a mover of mountains,
There's nothing that God cannot do,
So start out today
with Faith in your heart
And "Climb 'Til Your Dream Comes True!"
Good Luck,
Mom and Dad

TO LISA SALINAS:

Look to this day,
For it is life,
The very life of life.
In its brief course 'til all
The realities and verities of existence,
The bliss of growth,
The glory of power.
For yesterday is but as dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision,
But today, well lived,
Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision of hope,
Look well, therefore, to this day.
Love you,
Mom and Dad

TO JOHN LOPEZ:

Good luck always and God Bless you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Love,
Mom and Dad

TO DONNA FRATES:

Tomorrow is your future, but today you must decide what to do.
It's such a risk, knowing you might gain everything or lose.
Somewhere deep inside you possess the strength to decide what is best.
I know the struggle will be difficult,
But there's no doubt in my mind you will succeed and create your own happiness.
We are very proud of you.
Love, Mom and Dad

When I held you in my arms for the first time I was your age now. I can't remember now wanting you for one second. I looked at you then and I look at you now with so much love that I feel my heart will burst. God gave you to me because He knew I'd need someone as warm, loving and giving as you to help me through some very tough times and I hope from the bottom of my heart that I'll never let you down because you have never let me down. As you go out into our world and believe me it isn't a fair world,

TO DAVID GOULD:

I REMEMBER a little boy with rosey cheeks sitting on a snowmobile, on a real cold, snowy day in Massachusetts.

I REMEMBER a little boy coming to me with a kitten in his arms asking to keep it if he promised to take care of it.

I REMEMBER a little boy sitting on the pier with a fishing pole in his hand hoping for a shark to hit.

I REMEMBER a little football player crying because the coach yelled at him for clipping, and he didn't even know what the word meant.

I REMEMBER watching a young man come home from football practice and crashing on the sofa, after eating, of course.

I REMEMBER a young man being grounded for his grades.

From a little boy, to a strong, healthy, handsome young man. Now it's time for a new chapter to begin in your life and DAVID GOULD I know you're ready . . .

Congratulations and God Bless You . . .

With Love,
Your Mother

TO GREG FRARY:

Enough luck to make you smile at life,
Enough of all life's treasure to keep you truly happy.

Love from,
Mom and Dad,
Todd, Trisha and Lia

TO STACY DAME:

"My love you're everything in my life
the only thing that's right,
My first love you're every breath that I take, you're every step I make,
And I want to share all my love
with you,
No one else will do . . ."
Stacy you are my Endless Love,
Congratulations,

Barry

IN DEDICATION TO YOU, FROM THE 1981 MARCHING BAND.

MR. MELVIN MAXWELL

*The first game we marched at the things we have done
the things we've accomplished have all been for fun.*

*We've had good times, bad times,
and "different" times, too.
But we've worked together
for credit from you.*

You've taken harassment our fooling around — you've stuck with us always we won't let you down.

We all love you, Melvin we hope you don't go for we've lots to tell you some things you don't know.

*We've given you problems
we've broken your rules
we've yelled and we've screamed and we've acted like fools.*

*But we have been learning
we all understand
your love and devotion to Lely High's Band.*

*You've come a long distance
you've further to go troubles encumbered will never be foes.*

*So look toward the future
horizons are yours
the key to the future
will open all doors.*

*Annette Holly

Gary,
To one of the strongest guys
I know! Keep up the reputation.

Love,
Julie

Gary,
You had a good year
at Lely. Next year will be the Biggest and Best of all.
Keep up the good work, read over the summer and
be ready to come back and knock them dead in the fall. Mrs Beley

Gary,
I have a nice summer
Good luck in the future
Cathy Schulz

Gary
You're a sweet guy
& I wish you all

Gary,
It's been nice
saying "good bye"
to you at the bus stop!
Best wishes,
